

The Roaring Report

What is The Roaring Report?

The Roaring Report is a newsletter club where students can utilize their creativity by reporting school achievements, current events, stories, art, and more! It's an amazing experience and opportunity to grow your creative skills <3

Why join?

Meetings 1–2 times a month

- brainstorm ideas
- assign tasks
- check progress
- final edits

Advisor: Sr. Malak

- Experienced writer & Amazing mentor
- Promoting student leadership

Leadership

Roles:

Executive Editor –Aliza Naqvi–

- subbing for editor in chief
- making sure deadlines are met
- supervising
- assisting with editing
- collab w/ editor in chief for planning
- helping writers

PR –Sarah Akhter–

- managing instagram
- outreach
- promotion
- collaboration with other students

Editor in Chief –Zahra Shahnawaz–

- editing
- managing & guiding
- leadership & motivation
- ensuring quality work
- represents the club

Graphic Designer –Sukaina Rizvi–

- creating layouts and designs
- developing & enhancing content
- maintaining consistency with creativity
- integrating images & visual elements
- collabing w/ editor in chief & executive editor

Student Spotlights:

One of our plans for this year is to include and highlight more student work, if you can't join but still want to contribute, you can always submit a piece of writing or art to be featured in our next newsletter!

Thank you!